

The Formentera Office of Commerce is organising a pottery course for adults at Centre Antoni Tur 'Gabrielet' during the months of January, February and March. Interested parties can register from today until 23 December through the Virtual Citizen Information Office (OVAC) or in person at the Citizen Information Office (OAC).

Ana Juan, president and councillor of commerce, said the class workshop for "people who want to continue the pottery courses, as well as to acquire new knowledge in the different ways of making ceramics". "The administration continues to promote these types of continuing education opportunities for islanders in winter", said Juan.

Space is limited and classes can be held in the morning and afternoon. The course fee is €270, with a 30% discount for under-25s, retirees and people with disabilities.
