

Carnaval celebrations came early this year for elderly individuals at Formentera's adult care centre. All told, 25 seniors and five staff members took part in the popular holiday first by designing and fashioning, and then donning fancy-dress getups. The theme? Poker cards.

Black spades and clubs and red hearts and diamonds were the adornments on the decidedly multifarious deck of human cards, adding a splash of colour to activities at Formentera's Centre de Dia.
