The Formentera Office of Social Welfare (Conselleria de Benestar Social)-hosted series 'Talks for families and teachers' returns on 11 November at 5.00pm with 'Conscious Eating: The art of being present while at the table', presented by dietitian and nutritionist Lydia Micó.

The talk will take place in the Sala de Plens of the Consell de Formentera and childcare will be available. All attendees must wear a mask and public health measures in place at the time of the activity will be enforced. Interested islanders must reserve a spot by emailing educaciosoci al@conselldeformentera.cat or phoning 971 321 271.

5 November 2021 Communications Office Consell de Formentera

educaciosocial@conselldeformentera.cat licaran les mesures preventives de la covid vigents en el moment de l'activitat