

Consell president Alejandra Ferrer sat down today with Rita Costa and Julián Galindo, respective heads of Centre Social i de Majors de Sant Ferran and Club de Jubilats i Pensionistes de Formentera, to sign annual collaborative agreements with the two entities. First vice-president and seniors' consellera Ana Juan was also on hand for the signing.

The Consell subsidises Sant Ferran's centre for the elderly and the retirees' club of Sant Francesc to the tune of €8,000 and €11,000, respectively. The money helps pay for maintenance and fund services, not to mention promote and sustain programming and community activities designed for the elderly.
