

Call goes out for participants as Christmas shop window contest turns thirteen

Monday, 11 November 2019 13:23

The Consell de Formentera and the Chamber of Commerce of Eivissa-Formentera are teaming up to present the thirteenth Concurs d'Aparadorisme Nadalenc ("Christmas Shop Window Contest") in an effort to get out the Christmas spirit at local businesses this holiday season.

Participants can register from today, 11 November, to 20 November at 1.30pm. The contest is open to Formentera businesses that continue to operate during the Christmas holidays. Original homemade displays are preferred.

Decorations will be reviewed Thursday 28 November and winners will be announced Monday 2 December. First prize comes with a €225 and an honorary plaque, second prize €150 and a plaque, and third prize €75 and plaque.

Signups are being held at the Chamber of Commerce and the Citizen's Information Office (OAC).

The winners in 2018 were Casa Ortega, Llibreria Tur and Parafarmacia Nuria Gomà Roca.

11 November 2019
Department of Communication
Consell de Formentera