

The Formentera Office of Tourism is pleased to report that this weekend and next, 24–26 September and 1–3 October, seven island restaurants will offer gastronomic meals at a price of €25 (drinks not included).

Menus have been designed especially for the occasion, with some restaurants sticking with the classics and others opting to put a new spin on old favourites of the local culinary catalogue, often dishing up competitively priced signature cuisine.

Participating restaurants in the 2021 Gastronomic Weekends include, in Es Pujols, CARMEN by BLANCO, Pinatar and Macondo II; in La Savina, Quimera; in Sa Roqueta, Rosamar and, in Sant Ferran, Macondo I and Sa Panxa.

Contact info and detailed menus are available at formentera.es .
