

Formentera Council social welfare officer Vanessa Parellada, who is also the vice chair of a group named the Pityusic Cooperation Fund (Fons Pitiús de Cooperació in Catalan), was joined by fund manager Fina Darder in hosting a press conference to review the decisions made at the fund's March 27 assembly. Among the news items were a new member's adhesion to the fund as well as the fund's budget and areas of action.

In 2017 the Formentera Council has earmarked €20,000 for the non-profit fund, whose work varies from cooperation and emergency humanitarian relief to educational outreach and training on Formentera and Eivissa.
