

PIMEF, Formentera's coalition of small and medium-sized business owners, is putting on a new round of day-long training sessions called "Fent Pimef".

The seven associated courses will be held at the group's head office from April 4-30. Paid for by the Formentera Council, the classes are free and open to the public. The training is provided for in an agreement, signed by PIMEF and Formentera Council representatives, for business-related training and consultancy.
