

The Office of Youth Affairs of the Consell de Formentera is pleased to announce the activities programmed at the Casal de Joves during the month of March. Vanessa Parellada, youth affairs councillor pointed out that the island's youth drop-in centre will turn 15 this month, and to celebrate, the team are preparing a very special party for Casal youth and staff.

The activities bill starts today, Friday 3 March, with young people enjoying an evening of memory games. Tomorrow will come with an evening of art, where youth will tap into their creative side.

On International Women's Day, 8 March, a related film will be shown. "These days offer a chance for young people to get in touch with political struggles and history, and to foment a critical spirit that serves to make the world fairer and more egalitarian", said Vanessa Parellada.

Activities will continue all month long, with games on Friday (10 March), a table tennis tournament on Saturday (11 March), a collage workshop on Wednesday (15 March), a henna workshop on Friday (17 March), crafts for families on Saturday (19 March), a screening of the film "Green Book" on Wednesday (22 March), a custard cooking workshop on Friday (24 March), "Holi Intercultural" on Saturday (25 March) and the film "Planet 51" on Wednesday (29 March).

At the end of the month, on Friday (31 March), a party will be held to celebrate the drop-in centre's fifteenth anniversary. The Casal de Joves is for young people ages ten and up and is open from 4.00pm to 10.00pm, Tuesday to Saturday, all year long.
