

Formentera firefighters responded to a vehicle accident that occurred at approximately 4.30pm today on camí des Mal Pas.

The accident, which involved an electric car that flipped over in the middle of the road, earned one woman minor injuries and an ambulance ride to the island's hospital.

Arriving on the scene in a fire truck and urgent response vehicle, firefighters were joined by reinforcements from the Guardia Civil, an emergency-services ambulance and the tow truck tasked with hauling off the damaged vehicle.
