

The Consell de Formentera reminds islanders and businesses still in operation of the importance of respecting safety measures in view of the current health scare. Posters printed by the Consell and currently being distributed to members of Pimef and the Chamber of Commerce remind business owners of basic measures in hygiene, store management and recommended distance between clients.

17 March 2020
Department of Communications
Consell de Formentera