

The Spanish police's mobile unit in charge of processing national identification card (DNI) applications will once again offer local service on Wednesday 7 October. Islanders interested in requesting the service can schedule an appointment at the Formentera Local Police department by calling 971.32.22.01, Monday to Friday between 9.00am and 2.00pm. ID cards will be distributed Wednesday the 14th. The mobile unit had temporarily ceased operations on the island due to the pandemic.
