

The Consell de Formentera announces that, in response to the alleged gang rape and assault last July of a local 19-year-old girl, local government will seek to join the case as a “public accuser” (acusador popular). Formentera’s government reinforces its support for the victim and trusts justice will act swiftly to clarify the facts, and that the law will be upheld.

24 August 2021
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera