

The Formentera Office of Interior reports that two students of the emergencies and civil protection training programme at the CIFP Francesc de Borja Moll in Palma are completing placements with the Formentera Fire Brigade. Students must complete 400 hours of workplace training, where they learn to perform basic firefighting tasks as well as prevention and maintenance work.

11 April 2022
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera