

The Consell de Formentera human resources offices has issued a call for applicants to fill nursing staff positions at the old person's home under construction on Formentera. The terms were published today in the BOIB and applications may be submitted from tomorrow until 24 June. This call for applications is in addition to two other job vacancies that remain open until 20 June, one for health assistants at the old person's home and the other for administrative assistants. The three candidate pools are designed to help the Consell temporarily fill potential vacancies.

The official application form will be available at the Registre General d'Entrada and www.consellinsulardeformentera.cat

14 June 2022
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera

