

The Office of Interior of the Consell de Formentera reports that today attestations of successful completion were delivered to 19 cadets in the 43rd class of the local police basic training imparted by the Balearic School of Public Administration (EBAP). Josep Marí, councillor of interior, congratulated the new officers on their achievement and pointed out that three of the students will now complete practicum on Formentera's local force.

This morning a graduation ceremony was held in the University of the Balearic Islands (UIB) auditorium on Eivissa. Mercedes Garrido, Balearic minister of presidency, public function and equality, and Félix Ramos, chief of Formentera Local Police, were among the other authorities who attended the event. On 1 October 2008, exams were held in 26 municipalities to fill a total of 133 vacancies on local police forces. One of the positions is in Sant Antoni de Portmany, two are in Sant Josep de sa Talaia and three are on Formentera.
