

This area is intended for dependent older people or people with severe or moderate disabilities and high-dependency and people with intellectual disabilities, intellectual and mental condition dependent. The tasks range from information services offered by the Law of dependency, counseling, support, assessment of the degree of dependence and development of individual care program (PIA).

Composition: 1 social worker

Target: Dependent elderly people, people with severe or moderate disabilities and high-dependency and people with intellectual disabilities, intellectual and mental illness dependent Functions / Services: Counseling, support, evaluate the level of dependency, development of individual care program (PIA), to those interested in realizing the right to care for dependent and will promote personal autonomy.

Schedule: Monday through Friday, from 9 to 14 h. Wednesday from 17 to 19 h.

ts@formentera.es