

Hundreds of runners have already unloaded upon Formentera and in the coming days will be joined by still more, all for the occasion of the Formentera Half Marathon's sixth year. The two races included in the event – a 21km race beginning in La Mola and another (8km) with its starting point in Sant Ferran – both begin at 5:30pm.

All additional information (transport to and from the event, where and when to pick up numbers for participating runners, weather forecasts for the day of the race) can be found at the website

<http://marato-formentera.com/>