

The Formentera Department of Culture is pleased to announce that the la Mola lighthouse patio will once again be the scene of music-infused shindigs to celebrate the three full moons of summer 2021.

“From Baroque to early music” is the tagline of this year’s series, and the first instalment hits Thursday 22 July. With “Yes, We Bach”, Menorca’s own Il gesto armonico explore the lasting impact of Johann Sebastian Bach on the musical tradition. The musicians start with the full-tilt Baroque of the patriarch himself before tackling everything up to the dynasty’s close. On 21 August,

Solnegre

will present

“Fantasia”

, a survey of the melodies that animated the distinct kingdoms of 16th-century Iberian Peninsula. As the festival winds down, Ailàs!

enlist historical instruments and a proficiency with period aesthetics as they breathe life into

“L’expansió del moviment trobadoresc”

— a selection of 13th- and 14th-century material.

To respect the cliff-dwelling virots for whom the LLUN3S concert backdrop doubles as a nesting site, attendees will receive a pair of headphones connected to an internal amplification system.

Another new feature this year is the change from “pay-what-you-can” to a “pay-when-you-book” system. Admission for one concert is €15 and €35 for a three-concert pack. Seating capacity is restricted to 100. Tickets can be purchased by emailing entradesllun3s@gmail.com.

LLUN3S is a joint initiative by Espai F_ and the Formentera Department of Culture with support from Ports de Balears and Ràdio Illa.

6 July 2021

Communications Department

Consell de Formentera