

The Formentera School of Music and Dance, part of the Consell de Formentera's Office of Education, is pleased to announce two musical events that will take place on the island next weekend.

Gathering of pianists

Saturday 4 June at 12 noon, the Can Marroig Interpretation Centre will host a concert from the pianists of Eivissa's Municipal Foundation of Music and the Formentera School of Music and Dance [EMDF]. A total of 32 students of all ages will perform works by Clementino, Burgmüller, Beethoven, Bach, Satie and other distinguished composers in the piano repertoire. The audience will hear a variety of styles, from M. Schmitz's "Tango Aurora" to W.A. Mozart's "Minuet in C Major". Admission is free but space is limited.

Choir concert

Sunday 5 June at 6.30pm, the Sant Francesc church will welcome the EMDF Children's Choir and the Polyphonic Choir of Formentera for a concert, where more than 30 singers will perform a varied and interesting repertoire. The Polyphonic Choir will perform habaneras like "El meu avi" by R. Ortega and J. Romo's "Era una flor", as well as American music such H. Mancini's "Moon River" and L. Bernstein's "West Side Story". The Children's Choir will perform "Lullaby for a Princess" by A. Rodriguez and "Fiesta de la Paz" by M. Gelabert.

Formentera to host gathering of pianists and choir concert the first weekend in June

Thursday, 26 May 2022 10:53

---

Beata Pástor Aguirre, director of the Formentera choir, and pianist Rosa Magro, accompanied by