

The Formentera Office of Culture is pleased to report that from 12 to 30 July, the "Ajuntament Vell" exhibition space will host Infinitum, an exhibition by Enric Riera.

In Infinitum, the hometown artist presents twenty abstract paintings on canvas, paper and wood. Most of the pieces are square-shaped and acrylic as well as mixed media like sand and charcoal. Also on display are two books produced in collaboration with the art historian, poet and collector Michel Bohbot. All the works have been completed in the previous two years, from lockdown until now.

Riera says that the title of the exhibition - the absence of limits - "refers to the immensity of the sea and the sky, contemplated from a balcony over the sea". "It reminds us of the man's insignificance in the face of natural phenomena, such as the storm-battered island." With Infinitum, the artist, who is known for a sensitivity to colour and blue chromatics, exposes works with other colours treated with the same imprint.

The exhibition will open Monday 11 July at 8.00pm. It will be at the "Ajuntament Vell" exhibition space Monday to Saturday, 11.00am to 2.00pm and 7.00pm to 9.00pm.

The gallery is closed Sundays, holidays and Monday mornings.
